

Top Teen Job Sites

Cool Works www.coolworks.com

Jobs at camps, amusement parks, state parks, resorts and other cool places to work. Review openings by category or state.

SnagAJob.com

The largest and one of the best sites for finding part-time jobs and internships. Search by type of job, location and zip code to generate a list of jobs. Job seekers can fill out an online profile and also apply online.

Groovejob.com

Search for part-time jobs by zip code or city/state, then select how many miles you are willing to travel.

Teens4Hire www.teens4hire.org

Online job matching service for teens and employers who want to hire them. Create a profile, then apply online for job openings. Must register to search job listings.

Studentsjobs.gov www.studentjobs.com

US Government internships, co-ops, summer employment, volunteer opportunities and permanent part-time or full-time positions.

MyWorkster <http://jobsearch.about.com/od/networking/a/myworkster.htm>

MyWorkster provides a professional presence online (including a profile, resume, and video resume) as well as a means of networking with other job seekers and employers.

Part-Time Jobs

http://jobsearch.about.com/od/parttimejobs/Part Time Hourly Jobs.htm

The sites that focus on part-time jobs often have a good selection of opportunities for teenagers, so check them too.

For more information or teen job assistance contact:

Army Community Service Teen Job Readiness Coordinator
(803) 751-6153/5256

