

ARMY STRONG.™

Victory Starts Here!

FRG Fundraising

LTC Everett Yates
Deputy Staff Judge Advocate

ARMY STRONG.

Victory Starts Here!

Family Readiness Fundraising

Policy approved by the CG Authorizes fundraising during Graduation Events

Limits fundraising during Graduation Events to one per cycle

ARMY STRONG™

Victory Starts Here!

General Rules for Fundraising

- Commander is responsible for oversight
- Fund custodian appointed by the Commander
- Must have fund SOP
- No more than $10,000 in total funds per yr

ARMY STRONG.™

Victory Starts Here!

Specific Fundraising Requirements

- No cadre may sell to IET Soldiers or their families
- IET Soldiers may not be directed to purchase
- No fundraising directed at IET Soldiers

ARMY STRONG.

Victory Starts Here!

Acceptable Examples

- Selling food items at Family Day.
- Bake sale in the Battalion Headquarters to the Battalion staff.
- Selling clothing items with AAFES general manager's approval.

ARMY STRONG.

Victory Starts Here!

Unacceptable Examples

- Selling of food to IET Soldiers in the Platoon Day Room.
- Competing sales with AAFES merchandise without the AAFES general manager approval. This would be items such as coffee mugs, bookbags, and clothing items.
- Fundraising for anyone/anything other than the FRG.
- Fundraising off the installation.

ARMY STRONG.

Victory Starts Here!

Considerations

Top 5 Things that can get you and your FRG into Trouble

- DS/cadre in uniform/out of uniform serving hot dogs
- No fund Custodian/exceeding $10,000 in funds in a year
- Solicitation of funds/donations off the installation
- Fundraising without prior/proper approval
- Using FRG funds for mission items

ARMY STRONG.™

Victory Starts Here!

Gifts to FRGs

- Gifts must be unsolicited
- $1,000 or less may be accepted by Unit Commander after notification of Installation Gift Coordinator and review by JAG
- Over $1,000 offers refer to the Installation Gift Coordinator