

Survivor Outreach Services

IMCOM
SOLDIERS • FAMILIES • CIVILIANS

Our Fallen Warriors made the ultimate sacrifice. The Army has a commitment to its Families. Survivor Outreach Services is an Army-wide program designed to provide dedicated and comprehensive support to survivors of deceased Soldiers. Survivor Outreach Services connects you with the right people who can find the right support. Survivor Outreach Services Provides support to Active, Reserve and National Guard Families.

Contact the Fort Jackson Survivor Outreach Services at (803) 751-4867 or visit the SOS website at <http://myarmyonesource.com> (then select Family Programs, then Surviving Families) for more information

US Army Installation Management Command
Army Family Covenant: Keeping the Army's Promise