

First Annual Bake Exchange

Are you looking for a new recipe to wow your loved ones this Holiday?

Don't look any further...

- * Bake one dozen cupcakes
- * Bring one dozen copies of YOUR recipe to share

In these hard economic times, baked goods make for great gifts that make sense

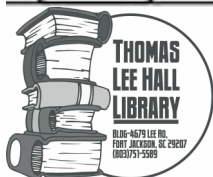

You may have been to a cookie exchange, but wouldn't a cupcake exchange be even tastier?

To make sure everyone is baking on the same sheet, here are the "ground rules":

- a) DO bring 12 cupcakes to share b) DO give credit when credit is due

(if you are "borrowing" a recipe from a book, a box, your Auntie or the web, reference it)

Coffee, tea and soft drinks will be available.
